Orfordville Police Committee talks clean up, chickens and updates

By Erica Gokey with minute assistance by Sherri Waage, Orfordville Clerk
STAFF WRITER

Orfordville's Police Committee held a meeting last week to properties, chickens in the village, and regular day-to-day operation updates.

Police Chief Brian Raupp opened the meeting with a situation regarding property cleanliness of 402 West Brodhead Street in Orfordville. The residents of the property have recently moved out and left behind a large mess that included mattresses and various debris.

Jeb McMahon purchased the property on October 10 and has picked up most of the mess. McMahon is working on cleaning out the garage, mowing, and hauling out a pile of metal.

Josh Clark, of 403 South Richards Street, spoke out regarding chickens being allowed in the village. He explained that most of the surrounding cities have ordinances allowing chickens and ducks.

Clark explained to the committee that his family likes to be self-sustaining by having their own garden. Having chickens allows Clark to have fresh eggs for his family.

He also went on to state that the noise from chickens is no comparison to dogs barking or noise from residents themselves. Clark pointed out that ducks are good for insect foraging and they live longer to provide more eggs. Clark seeks the opportunity to teach his children responsibility and teach them about composting for the garden.

McMahon added to Clark's explanation stating that he did some research about chickens and was surprised to learn that chickens were the third most popular events for backyards, with grilling and gardening listed as first and second. He also explained that backyard chickens are very popular and that his business caters to the smaller backyard chicken owners.

Committee member Jason Knox stated that historically, the government encourages self-sustainability by having backyard chickens.

Chief Raupp explained that Brodhead changed their ordinance to allow backyard chickens and it has not been a problem, aside from the expected objections. Chief Raupp offered to contact other municipalities to get more information about their policies.

Brandon Klitzman of 316 Hickory Court presented a concern for obliging by the village's ordinance for electrical and building requirements. Clerk Sherri Waage assured that a coop or pen is considered an accessory building like an outdoor shed. Current ordinance allows one accessory building.

Terry Gerber mentioned that in Evansville, it is a requirement for chicken structures to be inspected and can require fencing. Terry Bennett included that computers are an excellent source for mosquito control.

Chief Raupp is maintaining ordinances from other cities and is bringing them to the November meeting.

• Chief Raupp is ordering vest for the crossing guards that says Crossing Guard on them. This is the responsibility of the police department.

• Chief Raupp is working with the village attorney on the workman's comp liability for a reserve police program.

• A high volume of open records requests within the last two weeks is causing Chief Raupp to think about streamlining open records requests to be more time efficient.

• An upgrade copier/fax machine is needed for 2019. The upgrade machine provides proof of service, which is required for warrants for blood draws dealing with drunk driving. The warrants are being handled by fax only.

• The department is still having issues with the Sleet/Spillman system software. The new windows programs do not support the older software very well.

• The Village is participating in a National Drug Take back Day on Saturday, Oct. 27 from 9 a.m. to Noon. This is a chance to promote the new prescription box at the police department.

• A training seminar is taking place on Friday, Oct. 26 for the Portable Breath Test training. The department is hosting the seminar.

• Chief Raupp made the committee aware of an altercation that occurred in back where he needed assistance and the radio would not work. The metal building has caused radio issues in the past. In this instance, Chief Raupp had to hold the individual down and use his cell phone to get help instead of his radio.

Knox told Chief Raupp to look into the problem as it poses an obvious safety issue. Chairman Olson explained that Chief Wickstrum replaced equipment to address the issue. Clerk Waage is looking into who did the work at that time.

• Property located at 314 North Main Street was cleaned up as far as items in the driveway. Chief Raupp said he is monitoring the property for compliance.

• Chief Raupp and Officer Burdick demonstrated the new stop sticks for the committee. Burdick also updated the batteries and pads for AED units.

• Chief Raupp is looking into a resident request for ATV/UTV's to be allowed on village streets. The committee has no problem with the request and thinks it could be economically beneficial to be connected with other trails. Chief Raupp is contacting the DNR for further information.

• Chief Raupp is rewording the topic of holiday payout for full-time officers. The contract is not clear on how the holiday ids paid out if the holiday is actually worked. Chief Raupp is working to correct the language of the contract, including paying holidays, as they occur, not as one lump sum in November.

Parkview's 4K morning classes took a trip to Ten Eyck Apple Orchard in Brodhead.

Parkview 4K visits Ten Eyck Orchard

By Kathy Heider
PARKVIEW PR REPRESENTATIVE

Parkview 4K students visited Ten Eyck Orchard outside of Brodhead on Thursday, Oct. 11. Miss Opal gave the students a tour of the storage facility as well as the sorting/cleaning line where all apples are cleaned and sorted by size before placing in bags for sale.

The students learned that the smaller apples are used to make apple cider. Students sampled the apple cider at the end of the tour. The group then moved out to the apple orchard and after Opal showed the students the proper way to pick an apple, each student was allowed to pick one apple to eat or take home for later.

Town of Decatur to address referenda questions on November ballot

TOWN OF DECATUR RELEASE

Voters in the Town of Decatur have two local referenda on their November ballot. A question curbside pick-up of garbage and recyclables, and a question regarding the Clerk/Treasurer position are being presented on the ballot.

The Town Board is looking at providing curbside pick-up of garbage and recycling to all dwellings in the Town of Decatur. The Board has been soliciting bids from haulers and has selected Badgerland Disposal as the provider, if the referendum passes.

The cost is $12.55 per month per household for the first year of a seven-year contract with a slight increase each year for the balance of the contract. However, the Town cannot put this charge on the tax bill until after the service has been provided, so they need to fund the first year through a one-year levy increase.

The referendum questions reads: "Under state law, the increase in the levy of the Town of Decatur for the tax to be imposed for the next fiscal year, 2019, is limited to 0.727%, which results in a levy of $281,741. Shall the Town of Decatur be allowed to exceed this limit and increase the levy for the next fiscal year, 2019, for the purpose of establishing a curbside garbage and recycling collection program in the Town of Decatur, by a total of 37.05%, which results in a levy of $386,131?"

If this referendum passes, the town portion of the property tax will increase for one year to cover the cost of implementing curbside pick-up of garbage and recycling to all Town of Decatur residences.

The levy increase is for one year only and the following year reverts back to the pre-referendum levy limit. After that, the cost is a special charge on each tax bill with a residence.

The other referendum question reads, "Shall the person holding the office of Clerk/Treasurer in the Town of Decatur be appointed by the Town Board?"

This question is being put forward by the Town because the current Clerk/Treasurer is retiring in April 2019 and the Board believes that appointing this position will better serve the Town by allowing the Town Board members greater leeway in finding a qualified person for the Town Clerk/Treasurer position.

The Town Board is holding an informational meeting on Tuesday, Oct. 30 beginning at 7 p.m. to explain these referenda and to answer questions.

Representatives from Badgerland Disposal are on hand also to help explain their services. The Town Board encourages all residents to attend to hear all of the information and get questions answered.

If you are unable to attend this meeting and would like more information, feel free to contact the Town Clerk/Treasurer at 608-897-4965, 1408 14th Street, Brodhead or any Board member

Youth Conservation Day held at Honey Creek Park for area fifth graders

GREEN COUNTY LAND AND WATER CONSERVATION RELEASE

Five buses delivered about 150 fifth graders to Honey Creek Park on the west side of Monroe on Friday, Oct. 5. They came from New Glarus, Monticello and Monroe's Parkside Schools. The light rain didn't dampen their excitement for the opportunity to enjoy a day of outdoor classroom education.

Ten stations were set up around the park for students to rotate through. The educational stations included native prairies, watersheds, wildlife management, bee keeping, fishing, soil conservation and biology, soil basics, forestry, water microbiology, and local fish management.

Many stations had hands on activities for students to learn from. A favorite for the students is fishing. Many tried, but only a few were successful to catch the fish that were stocked the day before.

The day was made possible through cooperation of several agencies, organizations and individuals. Green County Land and Water Conservation Department would like to thank the Green County Conservation League, WI Department of Natural Resources, Natural Resources Conservation Service, Lower Sugar River Watershed Association, The Prairie Enthusiasts, Pheasants Forever, City of Monroe, Compeer Financial and Pat Holmstrom.

The next Youth Conservation Day for remaining area fifth graders to attend is on May 3, 2019. The event was started in spring of 2014 to teach kids about conservation and their environment. There are two dates held each year for scheduling flexibility for schools to attend.

For more information contact Tonya Gratz with the Green County Land and Water Conservation Department at 608-325-4195 ext 121.

Orfordville Village Board discusses replacement of a committee member and new three-way stop

By Erica Gokey with minute assistance from Clerk Sherri Waega
STAFF WRITER

Orfordville Village Board met last week to discuss a variety of new business topics.

Beth Schmidt explained to the board that Brian Bowditch could no longer serve on the Economic Development Committee. Camille Myers offered to replace Bowditch. Signatures accompanied the request from the surrounding neighbors. A motion was made and approved to amend Ordinance 304-13 by adding a stop sign on South Richards Street, heading south, at the intersection of South Richards Street and Walnut Street.

Parkview students receive Precision Measurements Certifications

By Kathy Heider
PARKVIEW PR REPRESENTATIVE

In early June, right after school got out, eight Parkview students returned to the classroom for three days of classes in certification for precision measurements. The students could receive six certifications after taking this class. They are:

1. Tape and Rule Measurement
2. Side Caliper Measurement
3. Gauge Measurement
4. Angle Measurement
5. Micrometer Measurement
6. Dial Gauge Measurement

These certifications are National post-secondary certifications that are NC3 accredited, industrial standard certifications. Fields that use the certifications include: Millwright, Machine Tool Operator, Precision Machining, Engineering, Aerospace, Culinary, Carpentry and many more.

This class provided students with a great opportunity since the cost per certification normally is from $1,000 to $1,500 per certification according to David Luety, Parkview technology and engineering educator, who co-taught the class.

Students took the class and complete the certifications at no cost through this program offered by Parkview. Luety added, "They may never use these tools again in their life, but they understand that precision is important in all fields from culinary to chemistry, and in the medical field. Just understanding the concept is huge." He added, "We are the first school in the area to offer this program.

After the classes ended the students went online to complete their certifications. They had until Sept. 1 to complete them and they were presented with their certificates at the September school board meeting.

Students who took part and the number of certifications they completed were: Alexis Nelson – six certifications, Josh Flueger – three certifications, Luke Schwengels – six certifications, Mark Newcomb – three certifications, Max Gerber – two certifications, Owen Knox – six certifications, Chase Carratt – three certifications and John Yacyszyn- three certifications.

Alexis Nelson, as a freshman, was the youngest person Tom Martin, the instructor from Snap-on who co-taught with Luety, had ever had in a class.

Green County 4-H Dairy Judging team wins National Contest

UW EXTENSION PRESS RELEASE

It was an exciting day for the Green County 4-H program, the community of Juda, and two local families especially. On Monday, Oct. 1, the Green County 4-H Dairy Judging team competed for the national title at the World Dairy Expo in Madison, and won.

It would be accurate to say that the pair of siblings - Clayton and Cole Mahlkuh, and Brian and Rachel McCullough - have grown up side-by-side. They've gone to school together, participated in 4-H and FFA together, been in many dairy show rings together, and judged dairy cattle together since they were little. Their family farms are even less than 5 miles apart.

The team's coach, Mike Marean of Albany, has known the Mahlkuh and McCullough families since he was a kid growing up in the Green County 4-H program himself, and he says the closeness the 4 of them have created is truly unique and special. "It is not every day you get the opportunity to work with kids that have the desire, drive and talent these kids have collectively shown," says Marean. "To have four kids all from the same school, the same 4-H club and live less than 5 miles apart from each other win a prestigious contest is special for the Juda community. The national 4-H contest is the best of the best from around the United States. To compete and win on that stage, with the best talent from each state, is something special." Marean has been coaching the 4-H dairy judging team for the past 28 years, and was also a part of the dairy judging team when he was a young 4-H member.

This year's dairy judging team participated in weekly practices starting in April that led up to the regional competition at Area Animal Science Day in Darlington on June 29.

As the winner of the regional competition, Green County's senior team advanced on to the State 4-H Dairy Judging competition, held on July 16 in Black River Falls, and won there as well. The next stop in their journey was the national competition, held at World Dairy Expo in Madison on Oct. 1.

As the winner of the national competition, Clayton, Cole, Brian and Rachel, along with Mike as their coach, will compete at the International 4-H Dairy Judging contest in Edinburgh, Scotland in June of 2019.

At the national competition on Oct. 1, Brian McCullough led the team as second high individual in the contest, was fourth in oral reasons and fourth in the placing-only contest. Rachel McCullough finished in 12th place and was second-place in the placing-only contest.

Cole Mahlkuh placed 22nd and earned All-American honors along with Brian and Rachel McCullough. Only 1 point separated the 1st place Wisconsin team from the 2nd place Minnesota team. This is the 12th team from Wisconsin to win the national contest, which has been in existence since 1919.

The Dairy project is one of more than 60 projects available for youth in Green County 4-H to explore, and Dairy Judging is just one opportunity of many within the Dairy project. For more information about Green County 4-H, contact Ellen Andrews, 4-H Youth Development Educator, at 328-9440 or ellen.andrews@ces.uwex.edu, or visit our website at greencounty4h.info.

Juda rallies over Pecatonica, swept by Monticello

By Erica Gokey and Scott Anderson
STAFF WRITER AND COACH

Juda and Pecatonica battled it out in a long 4-set match up last Tuesday.

Juda's Hannah Powers opened the match with strong serves. A 12-15 deficit soon turned into a 16-16 tie. Pecatonica and Juda traded blows allowing Pecatonica to jump to a 24-23 lead. Powers came back to execute three straight serves to win 26-24.

Game two was just as close of a battle as game one. Karlee Kesler assisted Juda with four points to take Juda to a lead of 8-7. Pecatonica's Lexi Peterson completed a kill against the Panther's, allowing her team to capitalize and take a 23-14 lead. A kill from Trinity Elmer and successful serves from Montana Steinmann gave Juda a 24-23 lead. Each team sided out and Elmer served for the win.

Juda had a 12-9 lead in game three, when Pecatonica's Val Carr served her team to a 20-12 lead. Juda battled back, but fell short at 25-22.

Powers and Kesler served well in back-to-back rotations in game four. This allowed Juda to take a 17-15 deficit and turn it into a 24-21 lead. Coach Scott Anderson said, "Pecatonica is really improved. The four (players) are young and really up and coming. Our seniors really did the job. Hannah, Karlee, Briana, Paige and Ariel all did well."

Juda team leaders of the night were Hannah Powers with 10 kills, 2 blocks, and 5 aces; Karlee Kesler with 4 aces and 12 assists; Taylor Golackson with 9 kills; and Montana Steinmann with 10 assists. As a team, Juda had 150 digs for the night.

Pecatonica team leaders were Lexi Peterson with 5 kills and 6 blocks;

Tessa Green with 5 kills; Val Carr with 6 aces; and Sydney Eaton with 10 assists.

Juda traveled to Monticello last Thursday, hoping to carry over their winning spirit from their face off against Pecatonica just a few days earlier.

Juda was swept by 3rd place Conference rival Monticello 3-0. Juda finished 4th in the Six Rivers East Conference this season.

The Ponies really passed well, keeping Juda out of much offense in game one. Monticello raced to early 8-1 lead and continued to capitalize from there.

In game two, Juda bounced back with a 4-0 lead with Montana Steinmann serving. It was a back and forth battle, but Monticello consistently attacked the Panther's and was able to prevail.

Game three, again, went in Monticello's favor with Juda missing serving opportunities.

Coach Scott Anderson said, "Monticello is a good team, they passed well and hit stronger than we did. I am proud of my team. We had over 75 digs tonight; we did not stop. We have had a good year in a strong conference and we now are looking forward to Tuesday night round one playoff against Cambria Friesland. We are excited that our good season resulted in a home game."

Juda's top players of the night were Briana Crull with 5 kills and 2 blocks, Hannah Powers with 5 kills, Montana Steinmann with 4 aces, Karlee Kesler with 7 assists and Trinity Elmer with 24 digs.

Cambria Friesland (9 seed) visited Juda (8 seed) yesterday for a playoff match up.

Brodhead leaf pick-up

BRODHEAD PUBLIC WORKS RELEASE
 Leaf pick-up will start sometime after Oct. 15, depending on how soon leaves fall and amount raked out. Until then, you can haul leaves to the compost site.
 Extended hours at the compost site starting Monday, Oct. 15 are Monday through Friday 1 to 5:30 p.m. and Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.
 Please follow these guidelines for leaves you want picked up:
 • Pick up is for leaves only. No garbage, animal waste, grass, brush, rocks or other foreign items mixed in. Items other than leaves can plug and damage the equipment, which you can be liable for.

 • Leaves must be raked to the edge of the curb or street in windrows away from trees, posts and other objects. If the machine can't reach your leaves, they will not be picked up.
 Do not put leaves in the gutter or in the street. Leaves release phosphorus when they break down and decompose, representing one of the largest sources of urban phosphorus pollution.

When left in the street gutters, a phosphorus-rich tea is produced that easily washes down the storm drains and directly into our rivers and lakes. You can help by raking leaves from the street curb in front of your home, and then composting them or placing them on the street terrace for pick up.
 To ensure you leaves are picked up; please have all leaves out to the street as soon as possible. Leaves put out after Friday, Nov. 16 may be too late for pick up.
 Thank you for your cooperation.

Help us bring LIGHT TO THE FIGHT!

Early detection is the most effective weapon we have in the fight against breast cancer, so OSF HealthCare wants to make sure every woman 40 or older, or who is at high-risk for breast cancer, is getting a regular mammogram.

Our goal is to perform more than 1,000 mammograms by the end of October – Breast Cancer Awareness Month. When we hit our goal, we'll bathe the hospital in pink spotlights to shine a light on the community's commitment to fighting breast cancer.

As a bonus, every woman who gets a mammogram at OSF HealthCare now through October receives a free packable tote (while supplies last). Women getting their first mammogram also receive a voucher for a free chair massage at the Rejuvenation Center at OSF HealthCare Saint Anthony Medical Center.

Walk-in screening mammogram services at:

OSF Saint Anthony Women's Health Center
5666 E. State St., Rockford, Illinois (in the North Tower)

OSF HealthCare Center for Health - Rock Cut
9951 Rock Cut Crossing, Loves Park, Illinois

OSF HealthCare Center for Health - Belvidere
