Governor Walker announces no-interest loans now available for flooded small businesses

SCOTT WALKER PRESS RELEASE

Governor Scott Walker announced the Wisconsin Economic Development Corporation (WEDC) has awarded a $755,000 grant to the Madison Region Economic Partnership (MadREP) to provide no-interest loans to small businesses in south-central Wisconsin that were impacted by the recent flooding.

Businesses in eight counties will be eligible for microloans of up to $15,000, which will provide them with a short-term source of funds for repair work and operating expenses until more long-term recovery funding can be secured. The loans have a two-year repayment period, with payments deferred for at least six months.

“Just weeks after the WEDC Board approved its new Disaster Recovery Microloan Program, we are ready to start providing loans to businesses that have been hard hit by the flooding and need some help for restoration work and related expenses,” said Governor Walker. “We realize there are many small businesses still struggling to recover from the flooding and these loans will give them the funds to help them quickly recover and get back on track.”

Under the $2 million program, WEDC awards grants to its regional partners, which in turn issues loans to businesses. In addition to MadREP, WEDC expects to provide grants to the Southwestern Wisconsin Regional Planning Commission and the Mississippi River Regional Planning Commission, two regional organizations in areas hit hardest by the flooding and severe weather in late August and early September.

MadREP is now accepting loan applications from businesses impacted by the severe weather. To be eligible for a loan, a business must be located in the MadREP region – Dane, Rock, Sauk, Dodge, Iowa, Columbia, Jefferson and Green counties. Businesses also must have suffered measurable physical damage because of the disaster and must intend to resume business operations in the community as quickly as possible.

The loans can be used for procurement of cleanup and restoration services, operating expenses, temporary space, and repair and reconstruction work. Applications can be found at madisonregion.org.

“Businesses in our community are still struggling to recover from August’s flood and wind damage,” said MadREP Acting President Michael Gay. “The program is designed to provide business owners with a readily available financial resource to make repairs and replace equipment.”

In Dane County alone, 126 businesses sustained $21 million in damage, including 22 that had major damage, according to Wisconsin Emergency Management. In Sauk County, 32 businesses sustained $900,000 in damage.

Van Nutt, executive director of the Middleton Chamber of Commerce, said the funds provide much-needed assistance for local businesses, which sustained about $30 million in structural damage.

“We are appreciative of MadREP administering WEDC’s Disaster Recovery Microloan Program,” Nutt said. “With more than 40 businesses affected by the August 20 historic rains in Middleton, this program comes at an important time for small businesses that are experiencing a very tight cash flow during their recovery.”

The WEDC Board of Directors, on Sept. 18, approved the program after businesses and homes in 18 counties

Orfordville Economic Development approves grant application; seeks guidance from Rock County source

By Erica Gokey with minute assistance from Clerk Sherri Waege STAFF WRITER

Orfordville Economic Development held a meeting last week to discuss grant application and future business.

Heidi Melton submitted a grant application for the cost of materials for painting at 106 North Center Street. The grant application was in the amount of $1,700 and was approved by the committee. Melton said that instead of receiving a check, she wants the money to be used for the purchase of a table for the downtown patio. The committee thanked Melton for her donation.

The committee discussed the Business After Five event that occurred on Wednesday, Oct. 24 at The Sassy farm Chicks. Clerk Sherri Waege placed a flyer on Facebook and emailed area businesses.

Beth Schmidt requested that focus be put on growth and promotion of new business in the Business/Industrial Park. Schmidt spoke with James Otterstein, Economic Development Manager for Rock County Development Alliance, about suggestions.

Otterstein is willing to attend future Economic Development meetings and made suggestions of future realtor, marketing, soliciting businesses, advertising and marketing, learn what other towns of similar population size are doing as far as drawing businesses, and what websites are available for marketing.

The next Economic Development meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, Nov. 13 at 6 p.m.

were damaged in late August and early September following several weeks of intense storms, tornados and heavy rainfall across much of southern and central Wisconsin. These storms produced devastating flash flooding in multiple regions, resulted in seven dam failures, and caused several lakes and rivers to spill out of their banks and damage homes, bridges and roads.

More than 300 businesses statewide sustained nearly $34 million in damage, while more than 1,200 homes sustained more than $25 million in damages, according to Wisconsin Emergency Management. Governor Walker has asked President Donald Trump to declare the 18 counties as federal disaster areas.

WEDC's Disaster Recovery Microloan Program is available to businesses in all 72 counties. For more information, visit wedc.org/disaster-recovery.

Parkview volleyball season ends at the hands of Mineral Point

By Trenten Scheidegger SPORTS CORRESPONDENT

Parkview Volleyball Squad hosted Mineral Point for the opening round of Regionals last Tuesday.

Parkview came in as the higher seed at #8, however they knew it would be a tough match as they faced off with the #9 seed in Mineral Point.

The Vikings kept it close in games one and two. They found themselves down 2-0 early on though, as they lost by scores of 25-20 and 25-21.

Parkview got the win in game three, as they pulled out a tight fought victory, winning 26-24, forcing a fourth game.

Parkview was unable to complete the comeback, as Mineral Point took game four by a score of 25-17.

Payton Segerstrom led the way for the Vikings with 39 assists and 13 digs. Kylie Redman provided the team with 4 aces and 10 digs. Madison Felmeten and Taylor Burrell were on the attack as they combined for 23 kills on the night.

Head Coach Kelsey Smith said after the game, "I want to thank all of our seniors for the hard work they've put in and for buying into my systems and plans. We couldn't have accomplished everything we did without them."

As for next season coach Smith said, "While we are losing seven seniors, I am confident that we will come back strong. We return 5 players who all had significant playing time this season and are ready to step up, and are hungry to win. We've raised the bar and will continue to seek more success next season"

Congratulations to the Vikings on their successful 2018 season.

Green County is getting close to adopting a county ordinance on Wind Energy System Siting

By Erica Roth
GREEN COUNTY DISTRICT 24
REPRESENTATIVE

A proposed ordinance was distributed to the Green County Board at the October County Board meeting, with the intention to discuss and vote on it at the upcoming November Board meeting.

The Land Use and Zoning Department and Committee have put the proposed ordinance together, following state guidelines closely. With the expectation of a 24-turbine wind farm locating in Jefferson Township, a siting ordinance is prudent.

This ordinance addresses both large and small wind energy systems; it will create Title 4, Chapter 11 of the Green County Code. The members of the County Board were encouraged to contact the Zoning Department and Corporation Counsel with questions while reviewing the ordinance prior to discussion and voting next month.

I would encourage residents to express any concerns or questions about this proposed ordinance to their supervisor as well.

The October County Board meeting was held at Pleasant View Nursing Home with tours available before and after the meeting. The tours focused on the newly renovated areas of the nursing home, which are beautiful, efficient, and are already proving to be an asset to our county and community.

There is a referendum on the November ballot requesting an increase in the levy limit for the purpose of paying a portion of the cost of operating and making capital improvements at Pleasant View Nursing Home. The amount requested is continuing at the current rate of up to $790,000 per year for six years (2019-2024), which is the same rate since 2015 and would not increase current property taxes.

The current referendum is expiring, and this referendum is requesting an extension. Pleasant View is an asset to our community, filling a need that would otherwise go unmet. Terry Snow, the administrator of Pleasant View, is willing to talk with any individual or small group about Pleasant View and the referendum. Please contact her or your supervisor with any questions. Terry can be reached 608-325-2171 or tsnow@greencountywi.org.

The November County Board meeting is on Tuesday, Nov. 13 at 7 p.m. in the Historic Courthouse on the Square in Monroe. The agenda is posted on the Green County website about one week before the meeting. Topics include discussion and possible action on the Wind Energy System Siting Ordinance and the 2019 Budget.

Please note that all County Board and Committee meetings are open to the public; information can be found on the county website at www.co.green.wi.gov.

Tuesday, Nov. 6 is Election Day. Exercise your right to vote. You can check your polling station, hours, and ballot information on the Green County website.

I represent District 24, the Town of Albany and the southeast portion of Brooklyn Township. I can be reached at 608-371-9074 or eroth@greencountywi.org. I look forward to hearing from you and appreciate the opportunity to represent you.

GCGS November meeting on funeral homes and family history

GCGS PRESS RELEASE

Green County Genealogical Society is presenting the program, Daniel Earl's "Funeral Homes and Family History: They Are Dying to Meet You!" at the November meeting.

Most genealogists know to look in a cemetery to find their ancestors, but what about the funeral home? Funeral home records can provide loads of genealogically rich information. This presentation teaches participants what types of records are typically found in funeral homes, how to locate these resources online and "in the field", as well as provide real life examples of how to search for ancillary clues in funeral home records. We are also reviewing the funeral home records available in our Research Center.

Daniel Earl got his start in family history at age 10 when his father took him to the grave of my (Sharon Mitchell) great-grandfather. That sparked a lifetime of interest in family history. He has spent the last 25 years researching his family history and helping others make history a part of their story.

The meeting is at 10 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 3 in the second-floor meeting room of the Monroe Public Library at 925 16th Avenue. Light refreshments are available 15 minutes before the meeting. Visitors are always welcome at our meetings and there is no cost to attend.

Call Sharon Mitchell at 815-868-2416 or Donna Kjendlie at 608-921-1537, if you have questions. Leave a message if we are not available to answer.

The GCGS Research Center (located in lower level of the Monroe Public Library) is available to the public for research. Research Center hours are: Tuesdays and every third Saturday 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. and first Saturday after the meeting from 1 to 3 p.m. or by appointment. Main holdings are in Green County. Both Rock and Lafayette Counties are well represented as well as several other counties, states, countries, and ethnic groups. A large clipping collection of births, marriages and obituaries is available. Volunteers are on staff to help with your research.

Resilient Farm Women Workshop

MONROE CLINIC/UW EXTENSION PRESS RELEASE

The Resilient Farm Women Workshop is a collaboration between Monroe Clinic and the UW-Extension. It is the second in a series of meetings designed to address the challenges resulting from the current economic pressures farm families in the region are experiencing.

This meeting is held, Thursday Nov. 1 at United Methodist Church at 2227 4th Street Monroe from 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Lunch is provided. Registration is required.

"The idea is to provide farm women—whether they are working on or off the farm—with tools and skills to manage the challenges facing today's farm families," shared Tammie Jamiska, Monroe Clinic's Community Outreach Specialist. Born and raised on a farm in South Wayne, Jamiska has an appreciation for the difficulties facing farms with low commodity prices and high supply and land prices. "There are no simple answers," admits Jamiska, "but it is important we keep the conversation going and look for solutions together."

Experts are presenting topics including farm succession planning, managing people and handling conflict situations. Keynote speaker Chris Clarke-Epstein, a Wisconsin native with rural ties and sensibilities offers a realistic way to approach change and manage it for positive results. The day wraps up with a panel discussion and conversation on practical next steps.

"Our goal with all Resilient Farms and Families programming is to connect the agricultural community with education and resources to thrive in an ever-changing world," explains Hayley Jordan UW-Extension Health and Well-Being Educator and a member of the event planning committee. Lori Wick, Lafayette County UW-Extension 4-H Youth Development Educator states, "This event is designed to provide a foundation to discuss the complex decisions facing all women in agriculture today in order to build for a better tomorrow."

For a detailed itinerary of the workshop, visit monroeclinic.org/farm-women. To register, call Green County UW-Extension office 608-328-9440 or Lafayette County UW-Extension office 608-776-4820.

Cambria-Friesland ends season for Juda in tight matchup

By Erica Gokey with stat assistance from Coach Scott Anderson
STAFF WRITER

Juda played host to Cambria-Friesland last Tuesday night. Both teams fought hard, but Cambria-Friesland swept the Panthers in a three game matchup.

Coach Scott Anderson said, "Juda had a slow start being down 14-5, from there they fought back, but Cambria-Friesland was simply too tough at the end of games, holding on to small leads in all three games."

Juda's top players of the night included Hannah Powers with 8 kills, and 3 blocks; Taylor Golackson with 6 kills, Karlee Kesler with 12 assists, Brianna Crull with 2 blocks, and Triniti Elmer with 28 digs. Scores were 25-22, 26-24, and 25-23.

Juda finished the season with an overall record of 11-9.

SAFETY TIPS

From Brodhead Chief of Police, Tom Moczynski

This year the Trick or Treat hours in Brodhead are 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. on Fri., Oct. 31. The City of Brodhead wants to make sure everyone stays safe while participating in Halloween events. Here are some safety tips for kids, parents, and homeowners.

If you go Trick or Treating the two most important safety tips are to be aware of traffic and be seen in the dark. It's important to walk, not run, from house to house; especially when crossing the street. Sudden and unexpected movements into traffic are a major cause of pedestrian accidents. Inexpensive LED flashlights and glow sticks provide several hours of light and help drivers see you.

Parents or an older sibling should accompany young children. Please respect every home owner's property and use the sidewalk when going house to house, where there is no sidewalks walk on the left side of the street facing traffic.

On Halloween night our streets experience increased traffic flow with parents dropping off car loads of trick or treaters. Drivers should take extra caution by slowing down and staying alert for pedestrians.

Parents; tell children to bring candy home before eating it, although tampering is very rare all candy should be inspected and anything suspicious should be discarded. Children should wear proper fitting costumes and masks should not obstruct their sight. Lastly, out of courtesy only go to houses that have an outside light on.

General Halloween Safety Tips:

Trick or Treaters

- Obey traffic signals
- Stay in familiar neighborhoods
- Don't cut across yards or driveways.
- Wear a watch you can read in the dark.
- Make sure costumes don't drag on the ground.
- Shoes should fit; even if they don't go with your costume.
- Wear clothing with reflective markings or tape.
- Stay away from and don't pet animals.

Parents

- If your children go on their own, have them wear a watch that can be read in the dark.
- Look for costumes made of flame-retardant material.
- Older children should know where to reach you and when to be home.
- You should know where they're going.
- Look at candy wrapping carefully and toss out anything that looks suspect.

Homeowners

- Clear your yard of trip hazards such things as ladders, hoses, dog leashes and flower pots.
- Pets frighten on Halloween; protect them from cars or inadvertently biting a trick-or-treater.
- Battery powered LED Jack o'lantern candles are preferable to a real flames.
- If candles are used place the pumpkin far from where trick-or-treaters walk or stand.
- Keep paper or cloth yard decorations from blowing into a flaming candle.

Have an enjoyable Halloween and Remember to Stay Safe!!!!
