Green County Market Steer/Market Heifer Weigh-In

The annual Green County Market Steer/Heifer Weigh-In is being held on Saturday, Dec. 29 at Equi Livestock, located south of Monroe from 8 to 11 a.m. In case of inclement weather the snow date will be Saturday, Jan. 5.

An announcement will be made over WBGR radio prior to 8 a.m. on the morning of Dec. 29 if the weigh-in will be re-scheduled due to inclement weather.

All exhibitors who plan to show market steers or market heifers at the 2019 Green County Junior Fair must have their market animal weighed and identified at this weigh-in. Each exhibitor can identify a maximum of 5 market animals. U.S.D.A. radio frequency identification tags will be used to identify each market animal for the county fair. Exhibitors will be required to provide the premise ID number for the farm that the market animal will be housed at.

Green County Fair exhibitors must reside in Green County or be a member of a Green County FFA or 4-H Club, to have their market animals weighed and identified at this weigh-in. Market animals must also be identified and weighed to be eligible to participate in the 2019 Green County Fair Meat Animal Auction, Junior Steer/Heifer Show and the Market Animal Performance Class at the Green County Fair.

A market animal performance class is being held again in 2019. Market Animals entered in the performance class will be scanned for carcass merits and will not be sent for harvest during the fair. This will allow youth to exhibit the same market animal in both the performance and the market steer and market heifer classes with the exception of the Grand and Reserve Champion Performance Market Animal. The grand and reserve champion performance market animal will be selected based on their rate of gain, live show placing and scanned carcass data.

Exhibitors are reminded that market steers and market heifers must have a rate of gain of two or more pounds per day to be eligible to enter the performance contest or to be sold in the Green County Fair Livestock Auction. The minimum County fair auction weights are 1,300 pounds for dairy steers, 1,100 pounds for all beef market steers, and 1,000 pounds for all market heifers. Market Animals must meet these minimum final weights at fair time to be eligible to sell in the livestock auction and to participate in the market animal performance contest.

This weigh-in is only for market steers/heifers that will be exhibited at the Green County Fair. Steers/Heifers that will be exhibited only at the WI State Fair will be self-identified by exhibitors and are not required to attend this weigh-in.

The Green County Beef Producers will be assisting with the weigh-in. Record books for the Green County Meat Animal Sale and fair rules will be distributed to all exhibitors at the weigh-in. If you have any questions regarding the weigh-in, contact Jackie McCarville, Green County UW-Extension Agricultural Educator at 608-328-9440.

By Trenten Scheidegger
SPORTS CORRESPONDENT

The Juda boys hosted an out of state opponent last Monday as the Warren Warriors traveled from Illinois to face off with the Panthers.

The Panthers found themselves down early as Warren held a 37-23 lead at halftime.

Warren expanded their lead in the second half as they worked towards a 68-46 victory over the Juda.

Trent Anderson led the way for the Panthers offensively with 11 points. Quenton Kammerer and Dogukan Yetgin combined for 16 as they each had 8 points apiece. Gavin Kammerer and Max Haffele each had 6.

Juda's usual offensive weapon was disabled last Monday as the Panthers hit just two three pointers, while their opponents hit on seven of their own.

Juda 52 vs. Monticello 66

Dominic Taylor led the way for the Panthers in the first half as he had 8 points before the break. It wasn't enough for the lead, however, as Juda went into halftime trailing 27-19.

Monticello's Gustafson and Rufer were nearly unstoppable as they combined for 47 points on the evening.

Juda was unable to match their offensive output as expanded their lead in the 2nd half, as they worked towards a 66-52 victory over the Panthers.

Taylor remained impressive throughout the evening as he finished with 21 total points. Trent Anderson finished with 9 points and Avery Sheaffer provided the team with 5 of his own.

Her favorite thing about the U.S. so far is that all of the teachers and students here are very friendly and that school is pretty easy. Her least favorite thing about the U.S. so far Orfordville hosts Ms. Parkview contest

By Kathy Heider
PR CONSULTANT FOR PARKVIEW

The second annual Ms. Parkview contest was held on Dec. 1 in the Parkview JR/SR High Commons.

Six contestants vied for the title of Ms. Parkview 2018; sophomores McKenzie Keith and August Pautsch and seniors Lacy Broetzmann, Madison Felmeten, Emily Sheehan and Brenna Zomok.

The contest began with each contestant introducing herself with the assistance of her escort. Following introductions was the talent portion of the contest. Two contestants (Lacy & McKenzie) sang as their talent, Madison danced, August taught math skills, Emily showed a dairy cow and Brenna gave compliments to members of the audience chosen by her escort.

Next was the "Era Dress" contest where the contestant could dress as any era she chose. The most popular was the 20's with three contestants choosing this era, one dressed as a young lady from the 1890's one from the 70's and one from the 80's.

Following a brief intermission there was an exercise exhibition in which the contestants chose a variety of ways to show off their physical fitness.

Component five of the competition was a mystery challenge. The contestants had five minutes to assemble a two-step staircase from precut lumber. The tools and all materials were in separate areas and the contestants had to request their escort to bring them each thing they needed, one at a time. The escort could not assist in the assembly of the stairs.

The competition was entertaining for the audience. The final challenge was a "deep question" from a list of thirteen questions. The contestants had seen all of the questions earlier in the week, but had to pick a number for their question so they didn't know which one they would have to answer until it was read.

The four finalists were: Lacy Broetzmann, Madison Felmeten, Emily Sheehan and Brenna Zomok. The two finalists were Lacy Broetzmann and Emily Sheehan, and Emily Sheehan was named Ms. Parkview 2018.

There was also a people's choice in which the crowd voted for their favorite, the contestant who won people's choice gets a gift certificate for a local restaurant and the winner of people's choice was Brenna Zomok.

The winner receives half of the money taken in from the attendance fee as a scholarship when she graduates. There was also a 50/50 raffle offered during the program.

The winner of the raffle graciously donated the $50 they won to the scholarship fund, so Emily will receive a $400 scholarship when she graduates in June.

Parkview offense impressive on home court

By Trenten Scheidegger
 SPORTS CORRESPONDENT

The Parkview boys played their first home game last Tuesday as they hosted Abundant Life, A Madison Christian School.

The Vikings came out with "high energy," Coach Striegl said. "We had some really good teamwork, great defense, and pushed the ball well".

The stats confirmed what Striegl had assessed, as the Vikings held an impressive 42-27 lead heading into halftime.

Parkview expanded on that lead in the second half as they held Abundant Life to just 17 second-half points, while the Vikings put up 43 points on their way to an 85-44 victory.

Striegl took notice of Aydon Campbell's play as he noted, "Campbell helped both in the scoring volume and the rebounding."

Campbell finished the evening with 19 points, Eli Hoscheit totaled 13, and Adrian Meza followed that up with 10. Justin Balch and Caylor Burns each had 9 points in an impressive offensive showing from the Vikings.

Parkview vs. Waterloo

The Vikings hosted Waterloo last week. Parkview proved they like to play at home as their offense was on fire. They held yet another impressive lead at halftime as they were up

44-30.

Parkview built on their lead in the second half, once again, as they put up 48 points in the second half on their way to a 92-65 victory.

All five Parkview starters reached double digits as Eli Hoscheit led the way with 24 points, Justin Balch had 21, Adrian Meza dropped 19, Jarrett
 Brown totaled 12, and Aydon Campbell finished with 10.

Coach Striegl said the Vikings transition game was spot on last Friday and "We got a good glimpse to night of what we are capable of."

It was certainly an impressive week at home for the Parkview Vikings.

From the family of Josephine Pinnow,
 We wish to thank all the many families, neighbors, and the many lives she has touched through teaching who helped us through this difficult time. The large amount of memorials and cards, flowers, prayers and food is testament to the amount of influence Jo had on so many people. Special thanks to Pastor Peder for his prayerful consultations with us, our vocalist Sharon Magee and organist Judie Erickson.
 Also special thanks to the ladies of the church for serving the lunch, Newcomer Funeral Home for making arrangements and anyone who helped in any way. Jo is truly missed.
