Juda students get hands-on lesson in solar power

Construction of Juda School District's new solar array began on Tuesday and Juda High School students got a first-hand look at the solar installation process. Ryan Harkins of Synergy Renewables, designed the 4-kilowatt solar array that will help the school offset its electricity consumption and reduce its utility bills.

Sixteen students, mostly seniors from Juda's Calculus and Engineering classes participated in the installation process.

"Helping put solar panels on our school really shows what our Engineering class can accomplish," said Juda student Tristan Geisking.

Harkins showed the students how to install the panels' racking and connection devices, and the students also learned how solar energy is produced. "Developing a solar project from the planning stages to the installation is an experience the students will remember for years to come," said Harkins. "The students did a fantastic job."

In 2012, the Juda School District set a goal of generating 10% of their electricity from renewable energy. The district had 36 solar panels installed in 2014 to offset its electric use. The new solar installation adds 12 more panels to the school's rooftop and the two installations combined offset nearly 10% of the school's electricity.

To help with costs, Juda received grants from RENEW Wisconsin's Solar for Good program and the Public Service Commission's Office of Energy Innovation. These grants helped fund the solar array, and a host of other energy efficiency measures at the school including building envelope improvements, HVAC optimization, and 100% LED lighting.

"Initially, the proposed payback to the school district would take 6 years. Now, thanks to the Energy Innovation Grant, the school is already realizing the savings," stated Mario Millonzi, President of Upper 90 Energy and contractor on the project.

Juda is now saving over $30,000 per year in utility costs, and over $6,000 in yearly maintenance costs. The school, however, sees the cost-savings as only one part of the project's benefits.

"At Juda, we issue the challenge to the students to make the school, the community, and the world better," said Juda Math and Engineering Instructor, Scott Anderson. "This project accomplishes all three."

Students at Juda were key to the success of the projects. In addition to helping with the installation, they helped write grants and worked with Upper 90 on the energy saving details. "Creating students who are aware of their role as stewards of our world may be the single most important thing I teach," added Anderson. "Once they get started, it's great to see what they can accomplish."

Wisconsin Natural Resources Board seeks expanded public input

The Wisconsin Natural Resources Board on Wednesday directed the Department of Natural Resources during their September meeting to expand public input regarding the department's process in developing rules relating to the state's water quality standards. The effort is intended to decrease nitrate pollution in areas of the state with highly permeable soils susceptible to groundwater contamination.

To achieve water quality standards required by state statute, NR 151 establishes statewide runoff pollution performance standards, prohibitions and practices for agricultural facilities. The rule also sets performance standards for non-agricultural facilities and transportation facilities.

The Legislature's Joint Committee for Review of Administrative Rules called for a preliminary hearing on the scope statement that outlines the parameters of the rulemaking. The DNR sought NRB approval at the September meeting for that hearing. The Wisconsin Natural Resources Board is asking for the public hearings relating to this process be expanded to three cities across the state including Fond du Lac, Hancock Research Center and Blackhawk Technical College in Janesville to be held after Nov. 1.

"This is not the board delaying the process. This is the board wanting to increase the public input for this very important issue affecting Wisconsinites," said NRB Chairman Dr. Frederick Prehn. "We are asking to expand public input because we truly want everyone at the table to help us tackle this. That also means making sure members of the agricultural community are part of this serious discussion which is why out of respect for their hard work during the harvest we ask for the public hearings to be held after November 1."

By law, if the statewide performance standards and prohibitions do not achieve state water quality standards, the DNR may develop targeted performance standards.

"This is a critical issue that needs a transparent, robust public input process. The research shows that 39% of Wisconsinites rely on private wells for their drinking water and thousands of those wells have nitrate levels so high the water is unsafe. We must fix that," said DNR Deputy Secretary Todd Amb. "We look forward to beginning that discussion in November as we work toward the goal of clean safe drinking water for the citizens of Wisconsin."

Nitrate is Wisconsin's most widespread groundwater contaminant. Approximately 90% of nitrate in groundwater originates from agricultural sources such as land application of fertilizers and manure. Much of nitrate comes from fertilizer applied to corn fields and use of nitrogen fertilizer has been increasing for decades. Elevated nitrate can cause miscarriage, congenital disabilities, elevated cancer risk and other disorders.

Following these three preliminary public hearings, the next step is the DNR seeking NRB approval of the scope statement, which then allows the department to start a rulemaking process.

The public can watch board meeting webcasts online. After each meeting, the webcast will be permanently available on demand.

Don't let the flu stop Fall fun

The excitement of returning to school, going to local football games, and other fall activities will soon be followed by flu season, and health officials are encouraging people to schedule their flu vaccines now to protect themselves, their children, elderly relatives, and their communities.

"The flu can be dangerous for many people, including pregnant women, young children, people age 65 and older, and others whose immune systems aren't working well," said Jeanne Ayers, State Health Officer and Division of Public Health Administrator. "Getting your flu vaccine protects you and so many others in your community, and helps prevent missed school or work."

Nationally, some 17 million work-days are missed due to flu. During last year's Wisconsin flu season, 3,483 people were hospitalized and 604 were admitted to the intensive care unit due to flu-related complications. In the previous flu season, 7,526 people were hospitalized with the flu, the highest year on record.

Getting the flu vaccine helps reduce your chances of getting sick from the flu and shortens the amount of time someone is sick. The flu vaccine can also reduce the symptoms if you do get the flu. To schedule your flu vaccine, contact your provider, or use this vaccine finder to locate a clinic or pharmacy providing them. The Vaccines for Children Program provides flu and other vaccines to eligible children at low or no cost.

Other ways to help avoid the flu include washing your hands, coughing or sneezing into a sleeve or tissue, and staying home if you do have the flu so you don't spread germs to others.

The LRIP grant application is due September 30, 2019. Todd received estimates from the Village engineer for the following street repairs: resurface Olson Drive $192,000.00, resurface Gifford Street $178,000.00, total reconstruction of S. Richards Street $400,000.00, curb repair and resurface N. Center Street $100,000.00, and curb repair, manhole adjustment, resurface and stripe N. Maple Street $40,000.00. Motion by Schmidt, seconded by Tuffree to select N. Maple Street as the LRIP project for funding. Motion carried. Todd explained that he will be applying for a 90/10 matching DOT

Grant in December and would like to list S. Richards Street and N. Center Street on that application.

Interrogation Room Lock. Chief Raupp explained that the interrogation room electronic lock has never worked correctly since the building was remodeled. Chief Raupp further explained that the electrician and contractor point fingers at each other as far as what the issue is, and neither has replied from the letter that was sent from Attorney Oellerich. Chief Raupp explained that he feels a simple key code lock can be installed by our Public Works Department for $130.00 to solve the problem. Motion by Knox, seconded by Boyce to purchase the key code lock for $130.00 and have the Public Works Department install it. Motion carried.

Amend Ordinance 304-13 regarding stop signs. Frank Tilleson was present to explain that the traffic speeds on E. Rime Street have continued to be a problem. Discussion held on making the intersection of N. Pine Street and E. Rime Street a three way intersection to slow down traffic. Suiter Meyers explained that she felt that the intersection of N. Mowe and E. Rime Street should be considered, Suiter Meyers further explained that both s E. Church Street and E. Rime Street would then have four way stops at the same location on each street. Motion by Gerber, seconded by Knox to amend Ordinance 304-13 to allow a three way stop intersection at N. Pine Street and E. Rime Street. Motion carried with Suiter Meyers voting no. Motion carried.

Amend Chapter 246 regarding property cleanup. Chief Raupp explained that Ordinance 246 does not allow for the Police Department to have full enforcement in regards to property nuisances and cleanup. Chief Raupp explained that he met with Attorney Oellerich to revise the ordinance to allow the Police Department to enforce the ordinances. Motion by Knox, seconded by Boyce to amend Chapter 246 of the Village Ordinance so the Police Department has more control over enforcement. Motion carried.

June Days Funding. President Phillips explained that Nick Todd and Chief Raupp met after June Days this year to discuss the problems that they had and what can be done for improvements moving forward. The Village requested that the Legion attend meetings to discuss what improvements and changes can be made to continue June Days and to make it successful again. President Phillips explained that the Village uses tax dollars to assist with the event which is a fundraiser for the Legion. The Village pays for two thirds of the fireworks, installs a temporary electric service for the carnival employees, and provides village employees for help with set up, working at the park during the event, and for cleanup when the event is done. Phillips explained that the first meeting was a success and that those in attendance were open to suggestions and the possibility of forming a committee of other members of community groups and the village to organize and assist with the annual event. President Phillips explained that the second meeting was a success and that more discussion was held on creating a committee so that the event can be improved and move forward, those in attendance from the Legion were going to take the idea back to the executive board at the Legion for discussion. President Phillips explained that the third meeting was held and the subject of forming a committee was brought up. President Phillips explained that Allan Morris told them that "the Legion Executive Board did not want a committee because nobody was going to tell them what they could or could not do."

Discussion held on the cost to the Village for putting on the event. Additional discussion held on continuing to invest tax dollars in the event, as the tax dollars spent are often more than what the Legion makes from hosting the event. Tilleson explained that there should be checks and balances in place if the Village is investing tax dollars for a fund raiser for the Legion. Discussion held on if there is a report given to show how the event does financially after the event. No one present has seen an actual report from the event. Additional discussion held on continuing to invest tax dollars in the event if there are no improvements made, as the village budget is tight and money is needed in the police department and public works.

President Phillips explained that he feels there are four options for moving forward: 1. Only pay for the village portion of the fireworks, 2. Cut funding completely for June Days and be done, 3. Agree to continue funding if a committee is made, and 4. Continue as it is.

The Board would like the event to continue; however, they feel much is needed to be improved for the event to become successful again.

Motion by Tuffree, seconded by Boyce to continue to provide the American Legion with funding and continued use of Purdy Park for the June Days Event with the following conditions:

1. A committee of the community is formed to include two village employees, two members of the American Legion, 2 members of the Sons of American Legion, 2 members of the Women's Auxiliary, and two members from each community group that wishes to participate.

2. A Chairman, Treasurer, and Secretary are appointed for the committee which will assist in the organization of the event and also to track the financial success of the fundraiser.

Roll Call Vote-Suiter Meyers, Schmidt, Boyce, Gerber, Tuffree, Knox, and President Phillips-all YES. Motion carried.

VOUCHERS: Motion by Knox, seconded by Boyce to approve the vouchers for $192,491.30 (including Baer Insurance $11,561.00, Mid State Equipment $16,400.00, Portzen Construction $137,075.65, and Town & Country Engineering $13,974.40). Motion carried.

ADJOURN: Motion by Gerber, seconded by Knox to adjourn at 8:28 p.m. Motion carried.

MARVEL AND TERRANCE THOMPSON

Terrance and Marvel Thompson celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary

Janesville residents, Marvel and Terrance Thompson, will be celebrating their 60th wedding anniversary on the Third of October. Terry graduated Janesville high school in 1957 and Marvel is a 1957 graduate of Brodhead high school. They met in the spring of 1958 at Bluff View Park dance hall near Brodhead and courted on weekends while Terry was attending US Navy electronics school at Great Lakes, Illinois.

They were married in Oct. 1959 during a small ceremony at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Janesville. The Rev. Martin Droegemueller officiated. In attendance were the bride and grooms parents and the grooms grandparents. The groom's brother Bruce served as best man and Shirley (Schultz) Sutherland was the bride's maid.

A reception for friends and relatives was held at the Avon Grange Hall the following day after which the newlyweds departed for Providence, Rhode Island where Terry was stationed aboard ship in the US Navy. While enroute they took time for a honeymoon at Niagara Falls.

During Terry's 21 years of active duty in the Navy they resided in Rhode Island, Virginia, Georgia, Florida (three times), California (twice), Illinois and Puerto Rico. Marvel served in the role of a navy wife for twenty years having primary responsibility for raising their two children whenever Terry was at sea. They have a son Terry Lee, who now resides with his family in Milwaukee, and a daughter Pamela Webb who lives with her family in Lenexa, Kansas. They have six grand-children and one great-grand child.

Terry retired from the Navy in 1978 and was employed by Marquette Medical Systems in Milwaukee until 1999 when he and Marvel retired to Janesville. Both attribute the length of their marriage to being married in a church and then taking God home with them as a permanent guest.

Obituaries

RONALD LANNING

Ronald Lanning, 86, formerly of Brodhead, Wisconsin, died Tuesday, September 17, 2019 at Grancare Nursing and Rehab Center in Fond du Lac.

Jack and David Lanning. He is survived by his children, Victoria (David) Olson of Fond du Lac, Steven Lanning of Charleston, SC, and Daria (Jon) Golz of Brodhead, his sisters Helen Gottfried and Debbie Kaplan, his brothers Richard (Pat) Lanning, Eugene (Rita) Lanning, and Harvey Lanning, 7 grandchildren, 3 great grandchildren, as well as many nieces and nephews.

JAMES MESSEL

James Messel, age 74, died on Sept. 21, 2019 while at the Mercy Hospital in Janesville.

James was born on Jan. 11, 1945 in Chicago, IL, the son of Walter and Helen (Koblick) Messel.

James enjoyed hunting and fishing and loved animals. He was a member of the Brodhead American Legion and James served his country in the US Navy during the Cuban Missile Crisis and was very proud of his service time. Before retirement, James worked in the bakery at Swiss Colony and as a bar tender at the Bluffview. For a few years, he worked construction in Texas and also farmed with his brother, Bud.

James is survived by his significant other of over 30 years, Kathy; two daughters, Barbara Messel and Gail Lewis; one grandson, Doug Lewis; two siblings, Bob Messel and Judy (Joe) Dietz.

James was preceded in death by his parents and several siblings.

In lieu of flowers, memorials can be directed to his family in his memory.

Memorial services will be held at the DL Newcomer Funeral Home, 1105 E. 9th Avenue in Brodhead WI on Friday, Oct. 4, at 11:30 a.m. There will be no visitation.

A memorial service will be held at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses in Fond du Lac on Saturday, September 28, 2019 at 2:00 p.m. Visitation is at 1:00 p.m. Ron was born March 3, 1933 in Oshkosh, Wisconsin to Ronald Sr. and Vivian Lanning. He graduated from Campbellsport High School in 1951. Ron and his high school sweetheart, Mary Boccotti, were married in Fond du Lac on July 11, 1953. A few years later they moved to Brodhead, where they raised their 4 children. Ronald was employed by UPS until his retirement in 1991. As one of Jehovah's Witnesses, one of his great joys was to share his faith with others. Ron always made himself available to help out fellow members of his congregation by providing both spiritual and practical assistance. Many of his friends recall him coming over to mow their lawn when they were unable. Ron and his wife, Mary, were known for their generous and hospitable spirit. Ron was known by the nickname "Jiggs" to all of his friends and family. It was a nickname given to him by his dad when he was a little boy because whenever music was playing, he just couldn't help but jig around. The nickname stuck.

He was an avid gardener and had a passion for aviation. He also loved to sing and whistle, and had a wonderful sense of humor that will be missed.

Ron was preceded in death by Mary, his wife of 59 years, his daughter Lynette Sass, and brothers
