Parkview boys split games with Whitewater, Madison Country Day

By Trenten Scheidegger
 CORRESPONDENT
 The Parkview Vikings have gotten off to a 2-5 start to their 2023-2024 varsity boys' basketball season. After getting an 81-70 victory over Monticello in their season opener, the Vikings went on to drop four straight, including losses to Abundant Life, Poynette, and Clinton.
 On Tuesday, Dec. 5, Parkview's fourth consecutive loss came in a tough matchup against the Whitewater Whippets. Not only were the Vikings riding a three-game skid ahead of the matchup, but they were on the road as Whitewater had the home court advantage.
 It didn't take long for Whitewater to jump out to an advantage. An early Parkview turnover allowed the Whippets to gain a 10-3 advantage. A quick three-pointer put the Whippets up by double figures as they went up 13-3, forcing a Parkview timeout.

 Midway through the first, the Vikings found themselves trailing 19-10. That's when Aiden Crane sunk a deep three-pointer to give the Vikings some momentum. On the ensuing possession, Crane made a quick steal and finished it off with a layup at the other end. Crane was fouled on the play and, eventually, sunk his and-one shot after a Whitewater timeout. Quickly, Crane and the Vikings found themselves within three.
 That's as close as things would get, however, as Whitewater controlled the rest of the half. By the break, the Vikings found themselves trailing 42-27. The second half was much of the same. The Vikings struggled to put up points on a night where they hit just thirty-five percent of their shots.

 Crane led the team in scoring with sixteen, while Jaxon Cronin was the only other Viking in double figures with eleven. Karson Redman and Mike Williams each had eight as Parkview fell to Whitewater 74-56. Redman had a near double-double performance as he led the team with ten rebounds.
 Two days later, the Vikings were back on the road. After four straight losses, they were also traveling for their third consecutive road game. On Dec. 7, they were set to face

'Twas the Night Before Christmas

BY CLEMENT CLARKE MOORE

'Twas the night before Christmas, when all through the house

Not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse;
The stockings were hung by the chimney with care,
In hopes that St. Nicholas soon would be there;

The children were nestled all snug in their beds,
While visions of sugar-plums danced in their heads;
And mamma in her 'kerchief, and I in my cap,
Had just settled down for a long winter's nap,

When out on the lawn there arose such a clatter,
I sprang from the bed to see what was the matter.
Away to the window I flew like a flash,
Tore open the shutters and threw up the sash.

The moon on the breast of the new-fallen snow
Gave the lustre of mid-day to objects below,
When, what to my wondering eyes should appear,
But a miniature sleigh, and eight tiny reindeer,

With a little old driver, so lively and quick,
I knew in a moment it must be St. Nick.
More rapid than eagles his coursers they came,
And he whistled, and shouted, and called them by name;

"Now, DASHER! now, DANCER! now, PRANCER and VIXEN!

On, COMET! on CUPID! on, DONNER and BLITZEN!
To the top of the porch! to the top of the wall!
Now dash away! dash away! dash away all!"

As dry leaves that before the wild hurricane fly,
When they meet with an obstacle, mount to the sky,
So up to the house-top the coursers they flew,
With the sleigh full of toys, and St. Nicholas too.

And then, in a twinkling, I heard on the roof
The prancing and pawing of each little hoof.
As I drew in my head, and was turning around,
Down the chimney St. Nicholas came with a bound.

He was dressed all in fur, from his head to his foot,
And his clothes were all tarnished with ashes and soot;
A bundle of toys he had flung on his back,
And he looked like a peddler just opening his pack.

His eyes - how they twinkled! his dimples how merry!
His cheeks were like roses, his nose like a cherry!
His droll little mouth was drawn up like a bow,
And the beard of his chin was as white as the snow;

The stump of a pipe he held tight in his teeth,
And the smoke it encircled his head like a wreath;
He had a broad face and a little round belly,
That shook, when he laughed like a bowlful of jelly.

He was chubby and plump, a right jolly old elf,
And I laughed when I saw him, in spite of myself;
A wink of his eye and a twist of his head,
Soon gave me to know I had nothing to dread;

He spoke not a word, but went straight to his work,
And filled all the stockings; then turned with a jerk,
And laying his finger aside of his nose,
And giving a nod, up the chimney he rose;

He sprang to his sleigh, to his team gave a whistle,
And away they all flew like the down of a thistle.
But I heard him exclaim, ere he drove out of sight,
HAPPY CHRISTMAS TO ALL,
AND TO ALL A GOOD-NIGHT!

off with Madison Country Day. Parkview came into the game with a record of 1-4, while MCD was a winless 0-4. Both programs were eager for a win.

The Vikings weren't going to be the team to give MCD their first, however. At least not on that day, as Parkview had one of their best offensive performances of the season. They nearly doubled up MCD in the first half as Parkview took a 39-20 lead into the break.

It was Oliver Friedrich who had the hot hand for the Vikings. Hitting seven of his twelve attempts from the field, Friedrich led the team with seventeen points. Crane was next up with eleven points, including going four for four at the free throw line. Cronin and Mathias Trainen each finished with ten as the Vikings had four in double figures.

The Vikings managed to end the road trip with a 79-55 victory over MCD. With that, their record improved to 2-4 on the year. They went on to drop their next game 99-61 to Deerfield, however. The Vikings will be back in action on Thursday, Dec. 21, when they play host to a tough Palmyra Eagle team. Palmyra-Eagle got off to a 5-1 start in their first six games of the season.
