LP gas leaks at Milton Propane

Lakeside Fire-Rescue, a part of the Edgerton Fire Protection District, was alerted by the Rock County 9-1-1 Center at 5:19 a.m. on Monday, July 1 for a report of an LP gas leak at Milton Propane, 3992 Vincent Street, on the southwest side of the City of Milton.

First arriving units from Lakeside Fire-Rescue Station 3 (Milton Station) observed an LP vapor cloud in the area being driven to the South by the prevailing winds. Lakeside crews working closely with Milton Police and Rock County Sheriff's Office quickly closed off John Paul Road, Vincent Street, and the surrounding area.

It was determined the leak was coming from a valve on the bottom of an approximate 60,000 gallon liquid propane tank, and fire crews in concert with employees of Milton Propane began to assess the best way to safely access the area of the leak when the leak "froze over" due to the temperature of the leaking propane.

This stopped the immediate flow, but then presented a challenge as to how to safely off-load the contents of the storage tank to prevent additional releases of propane gas.

Rock County Emergency Management and the Rock County Hazardous Materials Response Team were requested to assist in coordinating and mitigating the situation. The City of Madison Hazardous Materials Response Team was also requested for additional air monitoring equipment.

Off-loading of the leaking 60,000 gallon tank began at approximately 1:53 p.m., and was complete by 4:10 p.m.

In all, firefighters from Lakeside, Janesville, Evansville, and Madison Fire departments were involved, along with personnel from Rock County Sheriff's Office who coordinated evacuation and securing a safe area around the facility during the incident. Additional agencies that supported Incident Command during the incident included City of Milton Department of Public Works, Rock County Department of Public Works, Alliant Energy, Rock Energy Cooperative, Rock County Communications Center, City of Beloit Police Department and SWEPT.

Roads in the area, an estimated three homes, and three businesses were evacuated for approximately 10 hours; there were no injuries. Officials want to express their appreciation for the public's cooperation and patience during the incident.

Serving Brodhead and the surrounding area since 1994!

Henry Winkler headlines 52nd Annual Iola Car Show

The Iola Car Show is hosting its 52nd annual event from July 11 through 13. The largest car show and swap meet in the country, over 2,500 show cars are on display along with over 4,000 swap meet spaces. Celebrating the theme of "The Meeting of the Muscle", special guests include Henry Winkler, Donny Most and Anson Williams of "Happy Days", Stan Livingston of "My Three Sons", Jon Provost of TV's "Lassie", Derek Bieri of Vice Grip Garage, Emily Reeves of Flying Sparks Garage, and more.

"We are so excited to return to the Iola Car Show in celebration of 50 years of Happy Days," said Henry Winkler, "It's an amazing event and we are thrilled to be a part of it once again."

The Iola Car Show is a whole community, volunteer-driven event. With a population of 1,236, residents of the Village of Iola and beyond come together each year to host over 120,000 attendees. Proceeds provide direct benefit to over 130 local community organizations whose members volunteer their time to make the event possible.

The environment is a great reprieve from daily life featuring thousands of historic vehicles, themed buildings and displays live entertainment, campgrounds, and one of America's busiest swap meets. Derek Bieri of Vice Grip Garage will be performing live work all three days while interacting with spectators; and the GearKids program is providing awesome programs geared for children of all ages.

Additional industry icons in attendance include Don Garlits, Jo Coddington, Von Hot Rod, Greg and Leah Stelse of Greg's Speed Shop, Bill "Elvis" Stull, and Ali from Iola.

Event sponsors include Pepsi, Anheuser-Busch, Ford Motor Company, Toys for Trucks, Greg's Speed Shop, Wisconsin Chevy Super Dealers, Coker Tire, Kwik Trip, Ford, Ho-Chunk Gaming, BankFirst, Garage Experts of Fox Valley, Time Passages, Community Insurance, and more.

Volunteerism across the country continues to decline. According to a 2023 report by the U.S. Census Bureau and AmeriCorps, less than 25% of Americans aged 16 and above volunteered for an organization or association from September 2020 to 2021. That is down from 30% in 2019 and from 27.6% 20 years earlier when the survey began.

A model to revive small towns for big impact: The Iola Car Show aims to bridge the gap toward stronger civic engagement with volunteer and sponsorship opportunities that connect communities through a shared love of cars. Since incorporating as a nonprofit in the 1980s, over $9 million has been raised to date to support local organizations, and $30 million is generated annually in direct economic impact for the Central Wisconsin region.

Veterans honored with revamped "Cruise of Honor": In renewed efforts to continue to honor this nation's veterans, Justin Moen has taken on leadership of Iola Car Show's Cruise of Honor. The Cruise is a joint program with the King Veterans Home that provides a special tour of the show to King's Veterans on Thursday and Friday. Along with Goodie Bags and collectibles, the Veterans are given a VIP tour of the show with celebrity host Jo Coddington, including special features along the way.

Engaging youth remains critical as the classic car community continues to age. GearKids programming returns for the second year after its successful launch in 2023. It was initiated and is being led by Hayden Nelson, a student at University of Wisconsin Stevens Point. The schedule includes a scavenger hunt and wayfinding exercise, "Foundry in a Box", interactive building project and an appearance by "Rusty" of the popular Battlebots TV series.

"There is a very strong tradition of volunteerism related to this organization, with more than 2,000 volunteers from in and around our community coming together to assist with the event. Their efforts have significant social and financial impacts on the more than 130 different organizations they represent. Our metrics leading into the show indicate this is going to be the biggest we've ever hosted, as we continue to honor the past and focus on evolving the Show for future generations," said Joe Opperman, Executive Director of the Iola Car Show.

About the Iola Car Show: In 1972, author and publisher Chet Krause invited several local collector car enthusiasts to attend the Iola Lions Club Chicken Roast fundraiser as his guests. Twenty arrived with their classic cars, which quickly became a yearly tradition. The Iola Car Show is now the largest classic car show and swap meet in the country. The Show leverages the power of vehicles to create memories and transform lives. Proceeds each year provide direct benefit to over 130 local community organizations whose members volunteer their time to make the event possible. For more information, follow them on social media @IolaCarShow or visit the website at www.iololdcarshow.com.

Bicyclers compete in Gran Prix in Janesville

On June 13, downtown Janesville was filled with excitement for the Janesville Town Square Gran Prix, part of the Tour of America's Dairyland Series. Congratulations to all of the competitors for spectacular performances!

Upcoming events for Rock County Conservationists

Among the upcoming events held by the Rock County Conservationists is a Wildflower Meadow and Garden Tour on Saturday, July 13, from 9 a.m. to noon. They will meet at Tower Hill Park at 180 Saint Mary's Street in Milton.

Participants of this program will be able to see, photograph and identify summer wildflowers common to the fields and prairies of southern Wisconsin. Many of the plants featured will be native prairie wildflowers, but other wildflowers will be discussed as well. The use of a technique known as overseeding to create a wildflower meadow or planted prairie will also be discussed. The tour will also include a walk through the gardens of Milton residents Barbara and David Bendlin, which has been featured in several home gardens tours. Their gardens have been extensively planted to attract butterflies, hummingbirds and other pollinators.

For those who are interested, the Bendlins will offer suggestions on specific plants to attract pollinators.

Another of the upcoming events held by the Rock County Conservationists is a Canoe/Kayak trip on the Yahara River and Badfish Creek on Sunday, July 14. They will meet at Murwin Park in the Village of Fulton.

On the same day, the Rock County Conservationists will be offering two different canoe/kayak trips on local rivers. The trips are free and open to the public. To participate in either of these trips, a person must make a reservation in advance by calling Dave Bendlin at 608-868-3824 by Friday, July 12. Those interested are welcome to bring their own canoe or kayak, but if they don't own one, there will be a limited number of kayaks available for use at no charge.

The first trip takes place from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. on the Yahara River west of Edgerton. Participants should meet at Murwin Park off County Highway H in the village of Fulton, where they will arrange shuttles among the participants. The Yahara River is a wide, shallow river with a gentle current suitable for beginners and family-style paddling. Bring a beverage and snacks and wear clothes suitable for swimming.

The second trip takes place from 2 to 6 p.m. on the Badfish Creek near Cooksville. Participants should meet at Murwin Park off County Highway H in the village of Fulton, where they will arrange shuttles among the participants. The Badfish Creek is a narrow, twisting waterway with a quick current and many obstacles that require good boat control. It is not recommended for beginners who don't want to get wet and is not suited for large canoes or family-style paddling. Bring a beverage and snacks and wear clothes suitable for swimming; they'll stop along the way for a break where participants can swim if they choose.

Another event is a nature hike at Sunny Peace Prairie on Saturday, July 27, from 9 to 10:30 a.m. They will meet at the parking lot located at 2604 S. Coon Island Road in Orfordville. They will hike through a remnant woodlot and a planted prairie to see different wildflowers, birds, butterflies and other insects. Insect nets will be provided for children and adults to capture and observe insects at the site. Participants considering the idea of planting their own prairie will be able to see the kind of results they might achieve if they opted to create a prairie of their own.

Edge Dairy applauds bill to increase milk in WIC

Edge applauds Reps. Elise Stefanik (R-NY), Derrick Van Orden (R-WI) and Josh Harder (D-CA) in their bipartisan effort to return the amount of milk available to WIC families to the maximum monthly allowance for low-income moms and babies to previous levels.

The bill, known as the Protecting Mothers and Infants Access to Milk Act, would restore the maximum daily limit of dairy products allowed in the WIC program previously reduced through a proposed rule put forth by the Biden Administration.

"Providing adequate amounts of dairy products to the WIC program is fundamental to ensuring families have healthy and nutritious choices at home," said Edge Dairy Farmer Cooperative President Brody Stapel.

"We appreciate their common-sense approach to this legislation and extend our support to their efforts. As we move into more farm bill discussions, we need more bipartisan and supportive actions like this to come forward."

The bill introduced looks to reverse the rule, "Specialized Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants and Children (WIC): Revisions in the WIC Food Packages" which substantially reduced the amount of milk available to WIC families. The final rule went into effect on June 17.

– Edge Dairy Farmer Cooperative President Brody Stapel

"We must ensure women, infants, and children are fed and healthy, which is why I am proud to join Rep. Stefanik in introducing this legislation to restore the WIC maximum monthly allowances for milk, which should have never been cut in the first place," said Congressman Derrick Van Orden in a release.

Edge Dairy Farmer Cooperative provides dairy farmers throughout the Midwest with a powerful voice – the voice of milk – in Congress, with customers and within their communities. Edge, based in Green Bay, is one of the top cooperatives in the country based on milk volume. More information: www.voiceofmilk.com.

GREEN COUNTY FAIR!!!

JULY 17-21, 2024

2600 Tenth St.
Monroe, WI

History of the Green County Fair

The historical account of the Green County Fair was compiled by Ken Allen using the following resources:

- The minutes from the Green County Agricultural Society and Mechanics Institute (Green County Fair) that date back to 1957.
- Articles from the Monroe Sentinel and the Monroe Evening Times.
- Records and publications of the Green County Historical Society and Mechanics Institute.
- Interviews with past and present officers and directors of the Green County Fair.
- Records of the "History of Green County" published in 1884 and reprinted by the Higginson Book Company of Salem, Massachusetts.

The organization of the Agricultural Society began on July 4, 1853 when a few people interested in a Society of this kind met in the old courthouse in Monroe. The first fair of this Agricultural Society was held in November of 1853 at the courthouse. Premiums amounted to $100 and the majority of the exhibits were farm produce. Carnivals and amusements were not yet part of the fair tradition.

The person who should get the most credit for the organization of the Green County Fair was John A. Bingham. He was the first attorney in Green County after Wisconsin became a state. He also served as the first county judge.

In 1854 the Society purchased grounds just north of the village. The seven acres were purchased from A. Ludlow for $400. In order to fence the area and build necessary buildings they issued "Life Member Certificates" for $10 apiece.

The 1854 fair, held on the new grounds in October, was the first outdoor fair. The sum of $200 was paid in premiums.

On March 31, 1856 the State Legislature issued an act for the encouragement of agriculture. This resulted in an extensive fair being planned for 1857. In July of 1857 the first meeting of the "Green County Agricultural Society and Mechanics Institute" as we know it today was held.

The original fairs, held in the autumn at that time, emphasized handicrafts in addition to agriculture, thus the need for "mechanics institute" in the title of the original organization. The importance of crafts which were apparent in Monroe's tin shops, blacksmith and shoemakers shops, even in the coffin maker's trade, should not be underestimated at these fairs.

In 1865 the grounds were sold to Christopher Martin for $105 an acre and a committee was appointed to secure a new location. Under the authority of the Society, the committee purchased two parcels of land in 1866. The first was from Arabut Ludlow on April 3. This area of seven and three-eighths acres was purchased for $400. The second parcel of land was purchased from William Hodges. It consisted of six acres with a purchase price of $750. These plots of land were side by side on the east side of the village. This brought the total acreage to thirteen and three-eighths acres.

The Jockey Club built a race track on the grounds in 1866. The exact length of the track is unknown, but it is believed to have been half of a mile. This track was too small to start races from a starting gate so, naturally, it limited the number of horses that could be in a race. A new half mile track was built in 1900 on the south side of the grounds running east to west. The present track has been rated as one of the top in the Midwest. Quotes from harness racers over the years and up to the present, rate the track as one of the best they've ever raced on.

A small grandstand that probably seated 500 people was built in 1886 for $1,485. In 1902 they added 180 feet to its length. This structure was renovated and repaired many times and was extensively rebuilt in 1948. This facility was used until the fall of 1972 when it was destroyed by a tornado.

Boys were allowed to exhibit at the fair starting in 1867 and girls in 1885. There were no 4-H clubs until 1914 and no FFA chapters until 1928. However, there were boys and girls clubs dating back to 1867.

Bands were important entertainment in the early years. In 1868 the Society paid the German Silver Band musicians $50 for playing for events of the Green County Fair. In general entertainment was not provided, however, in 1874 Harry Leslie, "the hero of Niagara Falls" entertained at the fair. He was the second man to walk a tightrope 1,100 feet across the falls 151 feet above the ground. His demonstration at the Green County Fair must have seemed like a cakewalk in comparison with this walk over the falls. The main entertainment in the early years was baseball games and bands from the area. The Albany, Warren, Monroe, Lena, New Glarus, and Brodhead bands participated in fair events for many years.

In 1871 the Society purchased 12 1/2 acres from Gilbert Hodges for $3,000. Additional lots were purchased in 1917 and 1920 bringing the total acreage of the grounds up to approximately 30 acres, the same as today.

The 1909 Fair was one of the most successful in the first 100 years of the Green County Agricultural Society and Mechanics Institute. Several firsts occurred at this fair - the first carnival and the first night fair. At a fair board meeting early in the summer of 1909 E. F. Carruthers of the United States Booking Association of Chicago presented to the board putting on a carnival as the main entertainment for the fair. This show, traveling in its own train of 12 cars, would be the largest aggregation that had appeared in Monroe up to that time. Mr. Carruthers stated that they would have several free acts and would charge admission for such rides as the ferris wheel and the merry-go-round. The other part of the carnival would include such acts as Wild West shows, theater presentations, and the human roulette wheel.

Horse racing tradition at the Green County Fair

Monroe horsemen had three of the best racing horses in the nation. This started out with George Bleier's great chestnut stallion, Knight of Strathmore. In fact, Knight of Strathmore was so good that he had a hard time getting any competition for racing at the Green County Fair or any other fair in the area. He was so feared that the Green County Fairy could not fill the race because he was entered. After considerable discussion and due deliberation it was voted to bar Knight of Strathmore from the race. However, they offered him $100 for an exhibition race each day. This was providing that he break the state record for 3 year olds on a 1/2 mile track on Friday and the world's record on Saturday of the fair. He made a track record of 2:09 1/2 to beat the record of 2:11, but was indisposed the next day and did not try to set a world record. Knight of Strathmore set the mile world record in Monroe in 1910 as a four year old of 2:05 1/2. He held this record throughout his lifetime.

F.B. Luchsinger owned two record-breaking horses that raced on the Green County Fair track. They were Calumet Delco and Peter M'Kinney.
